

“O Timothy! Guard what was committed to your trust, avoiding the profane and idle babblings and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge.” 1 Timothy 6:20

Could we have ever imagined that in the honored halls of Congress, the proper use of bathrooms would need be debated?

Such occurs when the mind of the people becomes debased by condoning sin – Romans 1:18-32

- Proverbs 14:34-35
- Why were they debating in Congress over the proper usage of bathrooms?
 - Because sin has been exalted rather than righteousness.
- Isaiah 6:1-3
- Daniel 7:9-10, 14
- Why did God provide visions for these prophets?

God Continues To Rule

- Proverbs 14:34-35
- Why were they debating in Congress over the proper usage of bathrooms?
 - Because sin has been exalted rather than righteousness.
- Isaiah 6:1-3
- Daniel 7:9-10, 14
- Why did God provide visions for these prophets?

God Continues To Rule

- When we become disheartened, displeased...
- Samuel was displeased with the choice the people made during his life - 1 Samuel 8:6
- Samuel seemingly takes it hard, but their choice reflected their rejection of God - 1 Samuel 8:7-8
- Despite the obvious implications of their choice and the forewarning given to them about that choice, the people still wanted “change” - 1 Samuel 8:9-18
- “Sin is a reproach to any people” – Proverbs 14:34

God Continues To Rule!!!!

- Governments rule/exist only because God allows such, whether good or evil - John 19:11
- Remember King Nebuchadnezzar – Daniel 4:4-9, 17, 32
- Governments are a function of God's authority – Romans 13:1-7
- We must honor where honor is due - 1 Peter 2:13-17
- We need to pray for our rulers - 1 Timothy 2:1-4
 - That they govern considering God's will FIRST
